240 MEDFORD STREET
CHARLESTOWN, MASSACHUSETTS

We have taken a minute in time to speak with life about her tidings. Yesterday is placed behind us because it is gone and can only be remembered in moments. Today is here and cannot be withheld from becoming yesterday; but tomorrow? Life has no part of tomorrow until time provides.

We have our needs but time does not stand still to let us choose our moments. As time carries life in it's hands, life carries tomorrow; keeping us in darkness till time reaches light. But we must always keep that light alive and strive to be in its circle.

Days

Ralph Waldo Emerson

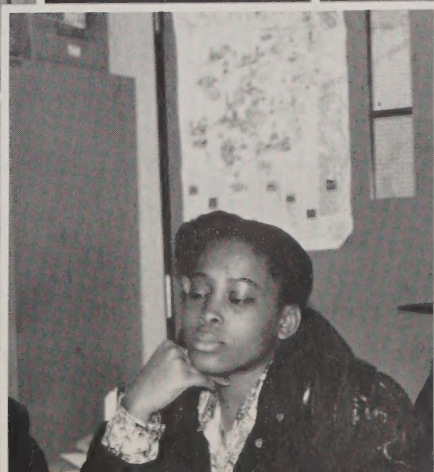

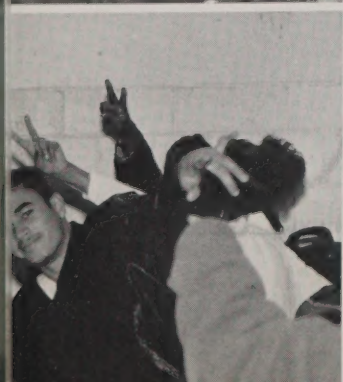

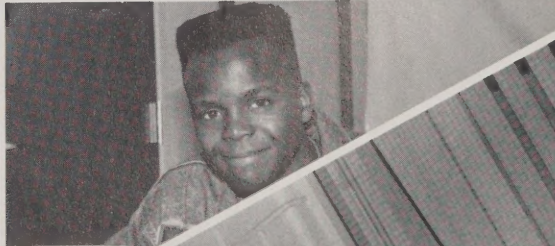

daughters of Time, the hypocritic days
luffed and dumb like barefoot dervishes,
and marching single in an endless file,
ring diadems and fagots in their hands.
o each they offer gifts after his will,
read, kingdoms, stars, and sky that holds em all.

in my pleached garden, watched the
omp,

orgot my morning wishes, hastily ook a few herbs and apples, and the Day urned and departed silent. I, too late, nder her solemn fillet saw the scorn.

Hold every moment sacred. Give each... its true and due fulfillment.

The Three S's ...

This year the girl's volleyball team had a very good season with a record of eleven wins and three losses. An excellent record, considering that some members of the team were new this year.

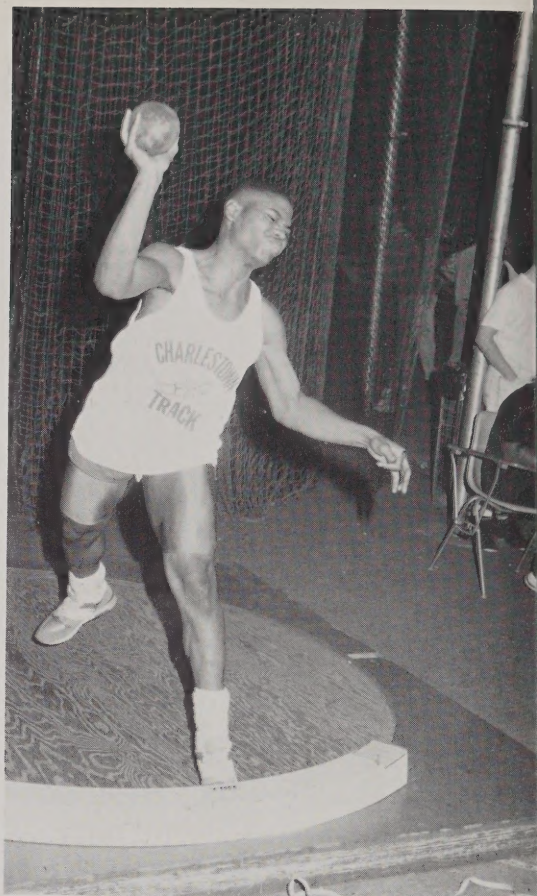

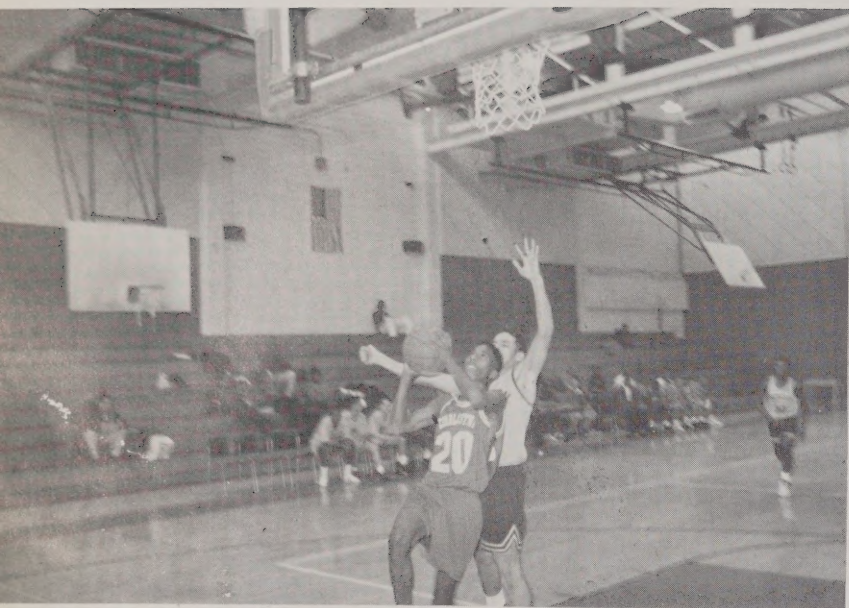

The team captains Tin Wing Tam, Li Li Mei, and Irene Xu attribute a large part of their successful season to Coach Rusinak's insistence on the three S's of volleyball—serve, set, and spike.

In spite of some transportation problems the team enjoyed playing this season and they have a record to be proud of.

MA 761st AIR FORCE JUNIOR ROTC SQUADRON at CHARLESTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

Summer Leadership School Graduation Day 1991 at Fort Devens Mass.

The Air Force Junior ROTC aerospace science program explores the civilian, industrial and military aspects of aerospace, and teaches students the concepts of self-reliance, self-discipline and characteristics found in good leaders. In the classroom, the cadets study and discuss human relations, management and communication skills to prepare themselves for leadership in any civilian or military field. Besides participating in many civic ceremonies, as a color guard or drill team, the program at Charlestown High School uses community service as a means of gaining practical experience in leadership, teamwork and civic pride.

Cadet Edgar Acosta is all set for the KC-135 flight.

The Year of The Monkey, another Chinese New Year, was celebrated on January 31st at the Cafe Montego. The Asian students' club sponsors this event, inviting many school committee members, the headmaster, teachers and students to celebrate this joyful event.

Once again, Charlestown High continues its annual tradition of hitting the slopes. For those who went, the trip will be a memorable one. Especially for the beginners; and for the intermediates, it was a step up the ladder of expertise. In addition to all the fun, we had good instructors from the ski school there who taught us how to be better skiers.

This year's trip took place at Mount Snow, a large ski resort in Wilmington, Vermont. Most of the students who skied last year and this year preferred it to Waterville, last year's site.

The trip was fun and enjoyable. Seniors won't forget it! And underclassmen will look forward to it next year.

THE CHS THOMSON ISLAND/ OUTWARD BOUND PROGRAM

Outward Bound helps students from all grades develop skills in community, trust, teamwork, and self-confidence. It also works to build respect for the environment and respect for all people. Besides a special class for eighteen ninth grade students, this year's activities have included camping, mountain climbing, dogsledding, winter camping, backpacking, sailing, and city exploration trips. Community service work has included feeding the homeless, storm damage repair at Cape Cod, running the animal olympics for children at the Franklin Park Zoo, and organizing CHS's participating in the 1992 Walk for Hunger.
